

Ticket System for Good behavior

Give tickets to students for them doing things that they are supposed to be doing in order to encourage students to exhibit better behavior, independent work, and think outside the box when completing assignments. Points can then be redeemed later for prizes.

Create point tickets-buy rolls of tickets

Sample prizes to include:

- Snacks
- Candy
- Gift cards
- School supplies
- Computer time
- Tickets to a home game

Students are not allowed to point out behavior and/or ask for tickets. It is up to the teacher's discretion to give out tickets as he/she see fit.

Tickets are rewarded for:

- Shirts tucked for guys
- Clean tables
- On task
- Good behavior
- Good grades
- Completed assignments
- On time for class
- Immediately starts working upon entering class
- Extraordinary acts of kindness

If you think that it will get expensive having so many tickets for students and having to purchase different gifts, have a drawing instead and the more tickets they have, the better their chances are of winning the prize! But still have simple items for those who have earned tickets even if it's just a nice book mark and some ink pens.
